

Coach Pass Quiz

Your Name: _____

Dojang: _____

As a coach at ringside you are permitted to:

1. Film the match with your cell phone

T F

2. Sit with your player at ringside while waiting for the player's match

T F

3. Alter the order of matches or switch opponents if you perceive the match to be unfair

T F

4. Protest a roundhouse kick to the opponent's body that was not scored

T F

5. Protest an out-of-bounds penalty against your own player

T F

6. Request an out-of-bounds penalty against the opponent

T F

7. Request a penalty against the opponent for excessive contact under junior safety rules

T F

8. Protest technical points not scored by your player as turning kick to the body scores only two points on the board)

T F

9. If you see the opposing coach or a corner judge stand up during the match, you should stand up as well.

T F

10. If your competitor makes an obscene gesture at the opponent and the referee gives a gamjeom, you can protest that.

T F

Code of Behavior:

You are expected to adhere to all rules of the tournament as well as to be a good citizen and participant in the games. As a coach, your job is to encourage your competitor and notify officials of missed or erroneous points. You are not to disrupt the normal flow of the matches by making loud and inappropriate noises, protesting incorrectly or displaying any sort of unsportsmanlike behavior. Your professional behavior will help our game be fair, positive and productive.